March 2024

The Arts Centre gallery café (at 4 West Street, Penicuik, EH26 9HY) is open Monday to Friday 10 am until 3 pm, and serves wonderful soups, toasties, home baking and hot drinks.

Did you know, we also offer a TAKE-AWAY service? These same home-made items can be bought “to go” at very reasonable prices - ideal for those quick breaks and picnic lunches!

You can also pre-order twelve scones to collect, freshly baked, for £18. Just call in to the café and place your order for the next week.

The café is a beautiful intimate space, newly decorated, with local artists' work on the walls to admire, and perhaps buy! The exhibition during March and April is from Barbara Hegarty and is well worth a visit.

Our storytelling project offers you Storytelling clubs on Friday 26th April (guest tbc) and Friday 21st June (guest Liz Weir), starting at 7.30 pm on both evenings. Tickets are only £5/£3 (pay less) and can be bought online (<https://www.penicuikarts.org/shop/>) or from the Arts Centre café two or three weeks beforehand

There are also storytelling workshops on Saturday 27th April (leader Ruth Kirkpatrick) and Saturday 22nd June 10 am - 2.45 pm (leader Liz Weir). These cost £30/£10 (pay less) and places must be booked in advance by email (penicuikarts.org@gmail.com). The workshops are informal and relaxed and help us learn different storytelling skills.

Our classical concert series is now at an end, but we can look forward to a concert of Rap music at the Music Hub, Bellman's Lane, on Thursday 14th March, 7.30 pm, performed by P Caso and Kalum from Glasgow, with support from Mascia. Burnt Our Records will be hosting the event in collaboration with the PCAA. Tickets are on sale now at £7/£5 (pay less) online (<https://www.penicuikarts.org/shop/>) or from the Arts Centre café.

Just over a week later, on Saturday 23rd March at 6 pm, there is a FREE concert - a cello recital from Kevin Hanley. This is organised and presented by Kevin, and tea and cake will be provided. Donations will be welcome.

Morag Barry is continuing her Sunday morning art classes for adults, and will be running an Easter art workshop for children on Friday 29th March. Please contact Morag directly for further information (moragdonkin@hotmail.co.uk).

The PCAA AGM will take place on Monday 27th May at 7:30pm. Business will be conducted as efficiently as possible and will be followed by a short musical performance from local musicians with refreshments. All are welcome, though only PCAA members can vote.

It's coming up to the exciting time of renewing or starting your PCAA membership! It's only £15 / £10 (pay less) for that rosy glow of knowing you are supporting the arts and all things creative in Penicuik and surrounding
